MARYVILLE COLLEGE BULLETIN
Published by Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee

Vol. LIII April, 1955 No. 6

Published quarterly by Maryville College. Entered May 24, 1904, at Maryville, Tennessee, as second-class mail matter. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized February 10, 1919.

EDWIN J. BEST, PRESIDENT OF THE MARYVILLE COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Dear Maryville College Alumnus:

To get in the proper atmosphere for writing a letter to you, I came over to Anderson Hall this morning, to the Alumni Office. Just as I picked up my pencil, a bell rang somewhere; the clock showed 9:20. The old building, which until now had been silent, began to stir. The first sound was as a distant wind, a magnified rustling. And then there was a roar. Old floors groaned and the ancient stairways creaked. Whole torrents of young humanity rushed through the corridors. There was a flurry of movement outside and now there is reverse flow as students climb the stairs to classes now beginning. You remember these sounds I am sure.

I have taken all this space to tell you something you already know: there is a lot of life on the campus, an infecting energy. Exposure to it seems to quicken the most sedentary of us. If you have gotton out of touch with Maryville since you graduated, you must miss this ever renewing source of human power, the dynamic force of youth.

While you certainly remember the sounds of student life, you may have forgotten Antaeus, defeated by Hercules. Antaeus' great strength was his so long as he kept contact with the earth. When Hercules lifted him into the air, Antaeus weakened and died at the hands of his adversary. The moral is this: don't lose contact. Don't be an Antaeus.

There are many ways to keep in touch with Maryville. Let us hear from you. Keep your area Alumni Clubs active. Advertise Maryville in your community. Keep your membership in the Buck-of-the-Month Club active.

And don't forget the Annual Alumni Banquet on May 14!

Sincerely yours,

Edwin J. Best
President, Alumni Association

To Maryville College Alumni:

(1) This message is being written April 2 on an airplane enroute from Maryville to the Pacific Northwest and Alaska. Mrs. Lloyd is with me. I am scheduled to conduct Good Friday services at Fairbanks, Alaska, and Easter services far up at Barrow. The present journey will last almost four weeks and includes three days of speaking in Oregon, fifteen in Alaska, and three in the State of Washington. We shall be baek at the College on April 27.

(2) My 25th Commencement as President will be held on Monday, May 16. It was originally scheduled for Wednesday, May 18, but was moved chiefly out of consideration for my duties as retiring Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the USA, which meets this year in Los Angeles on May 19. I have not missed a commencement and would have regretted especially missing this twenty-fifth. If Providence permits me to be present on May 16, as I expect, the one hundred diplomas to the class of 1955 will bring the number which I shall have handed to Maryville College seniors to a total of 3034, which comprises sixty-seven per cent of all diplomas awarded in the history of the College. That fact is a startling one to me personally. It reminds me not only of accumulating years and larger classes in these recent decades, but also of the increasing number of you in whom I have a deep special interest. With the exception of the few who have gone on from this into the larger life and the others who have not kept their addresses up to date in the Alumni Office, all of "my graduates" will receive this Bulletin and at least some will be reading this page. May I extend warm personal greetings and pray God's blessing upon you.

(3) As Moderator of the General Assembly, when I finally reach Maryville about June 1 from the 1955 General Assembly, I shall have traveled about 80,000 miles, more than three times the distance around the world, on church business within the United States, Canada, and Alaska, since the General Assembly in Detroit last May. It has seemed best to remain in North America during the year although our Church has work in thirty-four other countries. It happened that the ecumenical gatherings, the World Presbyterian Alliance and the World Council of Churches, held their meetings in the United States so that it was not necessary to go abroad for them. In July, after my Moderatorial duties are over, I expect to go to Europe for meetings of the Executive Committee of the Alliance and the Central Committee of the World Council. In my traveling and speaking I am seeing many Maryville College alumni, for which I am glad.

(4) The Union of the Presbyterian Church in the USA, the Presbyterian Church in the US, and the United Presbyterian Church, to which I have given considerable time for several years, has been postponed by failure of the US (Southern) Church to approve it. The votes in the other two Churches are favorable, and a majority of the US presbyteries have approved, but three fourths of them were required. We shall continue to work for the union with confidence that it will come in time because it is needed, practicable, and right.

(5) At the College the work is going forward well. I have been away about four fifths of the time and greatly miss being on the campus. I look forward to next year when I can "major" again in college affairs. I am deeply grateful to my associates on the staff and faculty who are carrying additional responsibilities so effectively. We are suffering some serious losses. All of us were deeply shocked and grieved by the unexpected death of Professor Sisk. At the end of the year Professor Walker, now the senior member of the faculty in point of service, is to retire. He was a teacher when I was a student, which means that I have never known the College when he was not a member of the faculty. We shall greatly miss him on the campus, but are glad he will continue to live in his present home. I am glad to report that the first year of return to our former interracial policy is proving to be a successful one. There have been no serious "incidents," student relationships have been normal, and the "outside world" is more and more recognizing that the program is right.

(6) Our Building Program is going forward, with the past year being especially productive for the new women's dormitory. As you know, it was the object of the Christian education "Opportunity Gifts" of Presbyterian women in 1954. Their goal was $65,000, but the total they have actually given us in cash is $77,408.35. This is cause for deep gratitude on the part of every Maryville College person. The total now in hand for the dormitory is $171,915. We need another $150,000 and are seeking it, and we are exploring also the possibility of erecting the building in two units, starting that for which we have money in the coming fall. The money received for the Chapel and Theater is now $416,448, but the estimated final cost (exclusive of the organ) is $616,491. So, we still have a big task ahead on this. But the building is a wonderful asset to the College of the present and the future.

(7) Our Enrollment is still sub-normal. There are 683 students this year, against our norm of 800. Alumni are asked to represent the College in interesting young people of the right preparation and character in the opportunities at Maryville College. You are our best representatives.

Cordially yours,

Ralph Waldo Lloyd

THE NEW CHAPEL

The beautiful Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel, now nearing the end of its first year of useful service to the college community, has more than surpassed expectations. Hailed as an architectural masterpiece, its adaptability has been a revelation, particularly to those who suffered through the seven lean years after the loss of the old chapel when the Alumni Gym was the gathering place for all college meetings.

It has proven ideal for the daily chapel services. Dr. McClelland and Dr. Cooper have joined forces to work out an excellent loud speaker system which has been of great help.

The Artist Series, featuring such attractions as Cornelia Otis Skinner, the Don Cossack Chorus, and the St. Louis Sinfonietta, has been a resounding success. More than a thousand people have attended each of the events in the Series, with a steadily growing interest on the part of the community at large.

During the summer, a succession of conferences will be held in the Chapel, including the regular sessions of the Synod of Mid-South.

The magnificent facilities of the Theatre have also made a great impression and served a constantly broadening function. English classes have utilized some of the special rooms for speech work.

Several completely unforeseen advantages have added to the conventional uses of the building. The Faculty-Student Reception at the opening of the College year was held in the patio under the stars, and was one of the most impressive occasions of the entire year. The All-College Sing was held on the steps of the Chapel and was another evidence of the great adaptability of the new facilities.

The Chapel has been visited by hundreds of people during the past few months, with a goodly number of Alumni represented. If you haven't seen the new chapel yet, it's worth a trip to the campus.

COMMENCEMENT

The Commencement Week program is given in detail on the inside front cover of this issue. Please note that the Graduation Exercises are on Monday, instead of Wednesday, and at ten o'clock instead of ten-thirty. Alumni Day is on Saturday, as it has been in recent years. The new Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel is large enough to accommodate all who come so some alumni may wish to remain over the week-end for Baccalaureate Sunday and Commencement Day.

The senior class is small this year, reflecting the small entering classes of four years ago. The veterans, who made such extraordinary large classes after the war, were either through college or in college when this class entered, and the low birthrate of the depression years meant fewer high school graduates.

The Annual Alumni Dinner will be held in the Dining Hall at 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 14. Tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased at the registration table on the campus that day, although advance reservations are helpful to those who plan the dinner. The band concert will begin at 9:30 a.m. and Alumni President Best, who will be presiding at the dinner, promises that the dinner will be over in time to attend the concert.

REUNIONS

There are six living members of the Fifty-Year Class and it is expected that several of them will be present for their reunion. The Twenty-Five Year Class is planning big things and hopes to have a large number here. The Forty-Year Class—1915, the Twenty-Year Class—1935, the Five-Year Class—1950, and others are planning reunions. If you don't know to whom to write about your reunion, write the Alumni Office and we shall be glad to put you in touch with your class reunion chairman.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY BREAKFAST

The annual Maryville College Breakfast at the Presbyterian USA General Assembly, which meets in Los Angeles this year, will be held in the New York Room of the Statler Hotel on Saturday morning, May 21, at 7:15 a.m. Those who are attending General Assembly will find posters there on which to sign up; those who live in the Los Angeles area should notify the Secretary of the Southern California Alumni Club, Mrs. James R. Tarwater, 6411 Cerritos Avenue, Long Beach. Payment may be made at the breakfast but reservations are necessary. All alumni, parents of students and alumni, and friends of the College are cordially invited.

FACULTY NEWS

Mrs. George Brown, Assistant Professor of Biology, had a major operation in March. She is recovering very satisfactorily but will not be able to teach again this spring.

Miss Katharine C. Davies, Chairman of the Division of Fine Arts, is on Sabbatical Leave this semester studying at the Royal Conservatory in London. Toward the end of April she plans to go to Salzburg and Vienna for a month.

Miss Frances Massey, Dean of Women, is on Sabbatical Leave this semester to study at the University of Tennessee.

Twin sons, Edward Elliott and Andrew Markham, were born November 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Beard, of the Art faculty. The students, as usual, sang "Rock-A-Bye Baby" in chapel the next morning but sang it twice.

Mr. and Mrs. Cragan's second child, Janet Darden, was born December 7. Mr. Cragan is teaching history this year while Miss Walker is on Sabbatical Leave.

Two compositions by Mr. Harter are being published soon by the Shawnee Publishing Co. One is an arrangement of the Twenty-Third Psalm and the other an arrangement of Two Wings, a Negro spiritual.

Mr. Hampton, of the Public Relations Office, has an article in the May issue of Good Housekeeping, entitled "Do Your College Shopping Early." Impetus for the article came from Mr. Hampton's experience of many years in the field of secondary school guidance and also from the current statistics of the U.S. Office of Education, which indicate that by 1970 college enrolments will be doubled.

During the Christmas vacation and at other times during the year, many faculty and staff members attend meetings of associations in their respective fields. Miss Craven attended the annual meeting of the Southern Speech Association in Memphis, Miss Cartledge and Dr. Buchanan attended the meeting of the National Association of Biblical Instructors in Atlanta, Dr. Case attended the Southern Sociological Society meeting in Nashville and a very interesting seminar at Fisk University on "Race and Culture at Mid-Century."

The Tennessee Philological Association celebrated its fiftienth anniversary at its meeting in March. Dr. Hunter was to give the response for the Association to the address of welcome at the banquet, and was also to read a paper on "The Duke of Vienna: a Study in Motivation," but because of illness could not attend; Mr. Bushing read his paper for him. Miss Heron, Miss Wier, and Mr. Bushing of the English faculty, and Miss Wilkinson and Mr. Schwam of the foreign languages faculty, attended the meeting. Maryville College faculty have been active in the Association from its beginning. Five annual meetings have been held at Maryville College, and five faculty members have served as president: Dr. H. J. Bassett in 1918; Dr. E. W. Davis in 1924 and again in 1947; Dr. George B. Hussey in 1931; Dr. Edwin R. Hunter in 1939; and Miss Catharine Wilkinson in 1950.

In April Mr. Curtis Hughes, a member of the music faculty from 1945 to 1953, and his family moved from Atlanta to Indianapolis, where he is Minister of Music in the First Presbyterian Church. Janice Marion, '52, and Kent Buser, '54, are also on the staff of the church.

RETIREMENT OF PROFESSOR WALKER

Professor Edgar Roy Walker will retire from his position as Associate Professor of Mathematics and Physics at the end

Professor Walker is in terms of service the senior member of the Maryville College faculty and staff. He became a teacher in the institution soon after his graduation in 1909. He is now completing forty-six years on continuous service as a member of the faculty.

He was born in Maryville, graduated from the Preparatory Department of the College in 1906 and received the B.A. degree here in 1909. He took graduate work in three different years at the University of Chicago and a number of years at the University of Tennessee. The latter institution conferred upon him the degree of M.A. in 1930.

Professor Walker married a fellow member of the college faculty, the former Miss Edith Zimmerman. Their daughter Arda is now an Assistant Professor of History at the College. Mr. and Mrs. Walker live on the Old Niles Ferry Pike.

DR. SISK

DEATH OF DR. SISK

Faculty and students were shocked on February 1 by the news that Dr. Sisk had died of a heart attack that morning. He had been in the hospital two or three days for a general check-up and treatment, but expected to be back with his classes on February 2.

Much of Dr. Sisk's life was closely related to the College. He had been Professor of Mathematics and Physics since 1938. He was graduated at Maryville College in 1917; Mrs. Sisk is the former Florence Steelman, of the Class of 1917; and their three daughters, Margaret (Mrs. Melvin Magee), Frances (Mrs. Curtis Wright), and Catherine (Mrs. Harold Kidder), all graduated from Maryville.

Dr. Sisk received his master's degree from the University of Kentucky and his doctor's degree from Cornell University. He was a high school teacher for four years and taught at the University of Tennessee for fifteen years, coming to the Maryville College faculty from U.T.

The funeral service was held in the Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel on February 3 and interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Knoxville.

Mrs. Sisk is continuing to maintain her home at 117 Miller Avenue, Maryville.

THE BUCK OF THE MONTH CLUB

As this is written, it is too early to assess the eventual potentialities of the Buck of the Month Club, the unique financial plan evolved by the Executive Council of the Alumni Association as a partial remedy for some of the monetary distress that is assuming epidemic proportions among American colleges and universities.

It was evident that loyal Maryville alumni wanted to give, and that more of them wanted to give than had been giving. The problem was therefore relatively simple: how to get many people to give something.

The Buck of the Month Club is the answer. At least, it is becoming increasingly evident that many alumni think it is sound — as well as appealing. Dozens took the trouble to write in and commend the Council for the plan.

Nearly three hundred alumni voiced approval with their "bucks" in the first two weeks of the program! The total received was more than one thousand dollars within this period of time. The success of the idea is truly phenomenal.

As was pointed out in the first Scotty-gram, the possibilities of this simple project are unbelievable. If all alumni contributed the $12 a year for which the plan contracts, the total received would be in excess of $50,000! Unbelievable, yes, but true.

It is up to the alumni to join ranks and fight for the Maryville College cause. You, better than anyone else, know that it is a just one. It is your college that is fighting for survival. There is hardly a college in the country that does not have this fight on its hands. The Buck of the Month Club is a mighty weapon — if all alumni support it.

Read the Scotty-gram each month — and keep the bucks coming. This is a two-way affair. Remember Antaeus!

FLORIDA ALUMNI CLUB OFFICERS

BANQUET COMMITTEE, BOSTON REUNION

ALUMNI CLUBS

Last November thirty Maryville alumni who live in Florida gathered at the Circle F Dude Ranch at Lake Wales, with Mr. and Mrs. George Fischbach, '33 (Cathryn Smith, '36) as host and hostess, where they enjoyed a week-end of fun and reminiscing. They decided to organize a Florida Chapter of the Maryville College Alumni Association and elected the following officers: Everett L. Cline, Jr., ex '40, chairman; Mrs. Edgar H. Dunn, Jr. (Lura Mae Laughmiller, '41), vice-chairman; and Mrs. Joel Phillips, Jr. (Elizabeth Bryant, '42), secretary-treasurer.

This first reunion was so successful that another is planned for next fall.

Three Alumni Clubs have held dinner meetings in honor of Dr. Lloyd when his moderatorial schedule has taken him to their areas.

In December twenty-two Massachusetts alumni met in Boston. The arrangements committee was headed by Mrs. John Carr (Lois Black, '38), and she was assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Hall, '22 (Lillian Brandon, '22) and Rev. Andrew Richards, '18.

In January Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd were in California. On January 15 a group of twenty alumni living in northern California had dinner at Exposition Fish Grotto, Fisherman's Wharf, in San Francisco. Mrs. Jaap van Leeuwen (Eleanor Henry, '32) was in charge of arrangements. James Shaw, '36, was elected chairman, and Phyllis Dexter, '35, secretary.

On January 17, the Southern California Club met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Belt, '20 (Elizabeth Bassel, '23) in Pasadena.

Officers elected were: Lamar Wilson, '21, chairman; Mrs. Paul Roose (Hattie Davis, '09), vice-chairman; and Mrs. James L. Tarwater (Kay Quass, '37), secretary.

Other gatherings of alumni have taken place during the past few months under the auspices of the Office of Public Relations. Enthusiastic groups of from half a dozen to thirty or more have convened in St. Petersburg, Atlanta, Birmingham, Chattanooga, Louisville, Nashville, and Cincinnati.

Similar meetings will be held in the near future in Washington, New York City, and perhaps Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The primary idea of these reunions has not been to meet formally, where regularly organized groups are already in existence, but to provide a medium for the alumni to meet for a social evening, view slides showing recent campus scenes, discuss the college problems in general, and to plan for possible concerted efforts in the future designed to: 1. stimulate alumni interest 2. aid in the student recruitment program and 3. to help the Public Relations Secretary to meet as many alumni as possible in the shortest time possible.

The rest of the summer will be occupied with the annual program of painting, repairing, redecorating, and so on.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE DEBATE TEAM

The Maryville College Debate Team has won itself quite a reputation in forensic circles during the past few months. In its initial contests, the squad showed considerable promise and campus interest picked up with each successive triumph.

In the Ninth Annual Magnolia Speech Tournament, staged at Mississippi State College for Women early in March, the Highlanders really hit their stride. Competing against twelve of the leading colleges and universities in the South, they compiled one of the outstanding records in the tournament.

The team of Sara Pledger (Birmingham, Ala.) and Jo Ann Brooks (Louisville, Ky.) won four out of five debates and received a tournament rating of Superior. Margaret Allen Hanna (also of Louisville) and Tom Paton (New York City) took three out of five contests and received a rating of Excellent.

In addition to the team honors, each of the Maryville contestants won a number of individual awards for excellence in the various phases of competition.

Victory by Miss Pledger and Miss Brooks over a Harvard team early in April was a sort of anti-climax to the Tournament showing, but it was none the less satisfying. The debate took place in the Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel on Monday morning, April 4, and the unanimous verdict of the judges went to Maryville. The members of the Harvard team were on tour, and the debate took place before a large crowd of students and townspeople.

Sara is the president of the college chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic honor society. Her mother, the former Frances Ruth Easley, is a graduate of Maryville (28).

The Debate Team was coached by Mrs. Archibald F. Pieper ('36) and E. Newell Witherspoon ('52).

WHO'S WHO

Nine Maryville College seniors were recognized by Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities by action of the Student Council and the Executive Council of the Faculty.

ALPHA GAMMA SIGMA

Ten members of the senior class were elected this year to Alpha Gamma Sigma, the scholarship honor society. Selections are made on the basis of superior scholarship, character, and contribution to campus life. Only ten per cent of the class may be chosen.

The annual recognition service will be held at the chapel exercises on Thursday, April 28. The speaker will be Edwin J. Best, president of the Maryville College Alumni Association and a member of the Class of 1936.

The following were elected to Alpha Gamma Sigma: Barbara Chubb, Athens, Penna.; Harry Hassall, Nashville, Tenn.; Barbara Hubbard, Chicago, Ill.; Pat Jones, Elizabethton, Tenn.; James Kesler, North Hills, Penna.; Marilyn Kiefer, Easton, Penna., Ruth Orr, Maryville, Tenn.; Sarah Ann Pledger, Birmingham, Ala.; Richard Thompson, Dunellen, New Jersey; and Herbert White, of White Plains, N. Y.

Several of the seniors come from homes where the Maryville tie is one of long standing. Ruth Orr is the daughter of Dr. Horace Orr ('12) and Mrs. Orr, who was Loy Alexander (ex '11). Her brother, Harold Eugene, was graduated in 1939 and two sisters, Mary Alexander and Zella Mildred, were graduated in 1941 and 1948, respectively.

Pat Jones is a cousin of Thomas Laird Jones of the Class of 1952. Sarah Ann Pledger is the daughter of the former Frances Easley ('28), while Richard Thompson had a brother, John Lawrence, who was graduated in 1952 and a sister-in-law who finished in 1951.

Four of the seniors elected to the national honor society had been previously honored by being selected for Who's Who. The four were Barbara Chubb, Marilyn Kiefer, Ruth Orr, and Herbert White.

The Maryville College Vesper Choir, which is rapidly attaining national prominence as a first magnitude choral group, recently began an ambitious spring concert schedule with a series of church appearances in the Knoxville area. On April 3, the Choir sang at the First Presbyterian Church of Oak Ridge and at Graystone Presbyterian Church in Knoxville. On the 17th, they appeared in Harriman and at Rockwood.

The annual Home Concert will be given in the Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel on Sunday, May 8.

Immediately after Commencement exercises are over, the choir will begin a concert tour covering sixteen cities in five states, with a total travel schedule of nearly twenty-five hundred miles. Dr. F. A. Griffitts, who has been business manager of the choir for the past five years, will again accompany the group on the spring tour this year.

The Choir sang over TV Station WATE, Knoxville, on Sunday, March 20, and has been heard via recordings on the NBS National Radio Pulpit on several occasions this year. Recordings of The Peaceable Kingdom were made by the Choir recently.

The Choir is again under the direction of Professor Harry Harter, of the Department of Fine Arts. He has been on the campus since 1947, and has been active in many phases of college work. He directs the annual performance of the Messiah, established the Madrigal Singers, and organized the opera workshop. This in addition to long daily stints with the Choir!

The itinerary of the Choir tour through the Northeast is as follows:

May	17	— Abington, Penna.
	18	— Morristown, N. J.
	19	— Roselle, N. J.

	29	— Washington, D. C.

Alumni are cordially invited to support the Choir on the tour by not only being present but bringing others with them. This is one way in which you can heed Mr. Best's injunction to "keep in touch with headquarters."
